ORDER:-

1. Sri M.Chandra sekhar, ABCWO, Nirmal, Adilabad District , consequence his trap by ACB authorities while demanding, and accepting bribe of Rs.2,700/- from a complainant, was placed under suspension vide Proceedings Rc.No.A2/5598/2003,dated 12-08-2003, by Director, B.C.Welfare Department, Hyderabad. Government have accorded sanction orders for prosecuting the Subject Officer in ACB trail Court, vide reference 2nd read above. Subsequently, Government have reviewed his suspension period and reinstated him in to service, after the suspension period of 2 years was completed.
2. The Principal Special Judge for SPE & ACB Cases, Hyd, has prosecuted the Subject Officer, and found that as the complainant himself admitted that, the Subject Officer, had not made any demands from the complainant who had got Rs.19.00 lakhs worth of bills attested by the Subject Officer in the past. Later, on 22-7-2003 also, the complainant got bills worth of Rs.1,08,128/-,attested by the Subject Officer who had made no demand of bribe for the attestation. The Principal Special Judge has further observed that if really the Subject Officer had intension to demand the amount, it is quite natural, and probable also to accept that Subject Officer would normally demand bribe when he attested the bills of huge amount. In a natural course of human conduct, if a person is inclined to demand bribe, the probable opportunity would be when the other desires sumptuary benefit. In the present case, Subject Officer could not make demands to attest the bills which put together are only 27,000/- and odd.
3. The Principal Special Judge for SPE & ACB Cases, Hyd, has finally arrived to the findings that Sri M.Chandra sekhar, ABCWO, is not guilty of the bribe, and has acquitted the Subject Officer from the charge, vide his Judgment in C.C.No.10/2005,dt.04.08.2010.
4. Government have carefully considered the circumstances explained therein, and the findings and Judgment thereof by the Principal Special Judge of Anti Corruption Bureau trail Court, and the report of the Director General,Anti Corruption Bureau,Hyd.in connection with the Judgment of the trail Court. Government have observed that there are no grounds to defer with the conclusion of the trail court, and have satisfied upon the findings.
